

I think this proposal would bring ham radio forward in a very positive way. Its much better then the ARRL's proposal RM-10867. Techs should NOT be grandfathered in as generals. The testing to general is needed for safe and interference free operation. No code or code at 5 wpm is fine.